reason for it the dealers have not been able to learn. The Boston Transcript says that supplies are coming in slowly and dealers fear the shortage will reak all records. The influence of the tax on Christmas trees imposed by Vermont and contemplated by Maine is said to be partially responsible for this, ut one dealer also said that the supply of trees was being exhausted and it was getting to be more and more difficult to get those of the right kind and size. The bulk of the trees sent to Boston So far the Boston prices are as follows; from $1 to $2 and children's trees even lower. It is expected, however, that if the shortage continues, the prices will go up. Last year, the night before Christmas, church trees sold for as much as $20 each. Streamers of ground pine are now selling for five cents a yard and wreaths range from 25 cents to $1, acording to size.

The public service commission Thursday made public its findings on the railroad wreck at Riverton, August 21, in which five persons were killed. They find the cause of the wreck the combined negligence of Operator Meunier at Northfield and Conductor Joseph Lane, Harold Launigan, head brakeman, and Engineer Berryman of train 411. The operator was at fault in not knowing that the signal was right and in the stop position, and the trainmen in that after the one at Riverton, to have been Trade. due to disobedience to orders by the train crew of extra 405; which had orlers to meet train 400, but, thinking the train already passed, paid no attention to that order. The report states that the conductor of this train, on whom most of the blame rested, has ordered the engineer to proceed.

OF BARRE GRANITE.

Important Monument to Be Erected at Louisville.

The Harrison Granite Co., New York, have now under way an important monument for Louisville, Ky., the Baroness von Zedtwitz memorial, says the Monumental News, Its main parts are an exedra of Barre granite with a marble pavement containing a central feature of a low marble pedestal, with some allegorical details, surmounted by a group of portrait statues in Greek marble of the Baroness von Zedtwitz, of Thun, Switzerland, and her sister recently de ceased, Mary Gueandaline Byrd Caldwell, Marquise des Monstiers Merinville. who died at sea October 5, 1909. The LOOKS into the FUTURE are 30 ft. by 20 ft. The figures, 7 ft. bigh, are being modeled by Gilbert Bayes, a noted English sculptor, whose well known "Eneas carrying his father out of Troy" is illustrated in another column. "ALIAS JIMMY VALENTINE" COMING Not a Dull Moment, Thrills Audience-In Barre Dec. 15.

One of the most attractive of the season's engagements at the opera house is Liebler and company's production of 'Alias Jimmy Valentine," Paul Arm-Fire in Brattleboro destroyed a barn strong's successful detective-thief play, which was the big hit of the last New and occupied by Mrs. George Harrington. York season. This play, the story of The cause is unknown. There was $1,200 which, dealing with a certain gentleman nsurance on the house and no insurance of the magic finger tips, able to open safes and vaults unaided by aught but a sense of touch, is too well known to require repetition, and is scheduled to aphristmas trees this year, though the pear here next Thursday, Dec. 15.

The management makes no attempt to disguise the fact that "Alias Jimmy Valentine" has a melodramatic flavor. Naturally, it is not the brand of melodrama once so popular in lower-priced houses, but the plausible, well-constructed and well-written sort that permits a reas the enjoyment of a thrill or two, without causing the one thrilled to feel the least bit ashamed of himself.

In approved Broadway parlance, "Alito the final scene, which climbs to such such a pitch that it scores what can best be described by another Broadway phrase, "a knockout." "The Fourth Estate" is another play of this sort. Interesting and exciting as its earlier acts are, the wonderful composing-room scene heights that it arouses its audiences to is saved for the end of the play.
In "Alias Jimmy Valentine," according to the advance reports, there is never a dull moment. The action starts with a scene in Sing Sing prison that is absorbing and an accurate picture of real prison life. If you expect some thrilling jail-break, however, don't go to see "Ali as Jinmy Valentine." Nothing of the impossible is attempted. "Here we have the real thing," said Town Topics, com menting on the play.
